

SUMMARY

ECJ 17 March 2022, case C-232/20 (Daimler), Temporary Agency Work

NP – v – Daimler AG, Mercedes-Benz Werk Berlin, German case

Summary

It is possible have a temporary agency worker fill in a permanent position. However, using multiple assignments may be in breach of Directive 2008/104, if the assignment is longer than 'temporary' and if there is no objective reason. Unfortunately, no English translation is available yet, but other translations are available here.
