

SUMMARY

ECtHR 29 August 2024, case number 24622/22 (Pasquinelli and Others v. San Marino), health and safety

Pasquinelli and Others – v – San Marino

Summary

The measures imposed on unvaccinated healthcare workers are justified, bearing in mind the wide discretion States had in healthcare police matters. The ECtHR's summary of the case is available here.

Judgment

The Court:

Declares the complaints concerning Article 8 in respect of all but the twenty-fifth applicant admissible and the remainder of the application inadmissible;
Holds that there has been no violation of Article 8 of the Convention.

Creator: European Court of Human Rights (ECtHR)

Verdict at: 2024-08-29

Case number: 24622/22